The entry fee is not refundable.

FIRST STAGE – Preliminary round

In order to participate in the Competition, applicants must submit a video recording of a composition lasting between 18 and 22 minutes, according to the instructions listed in the annex to these Rules. The repertoire must include:

1. one étude by Chopin
2. one Romantic piece of candidate's choice
3. one 20th century piece of candidate's choice
4. one piece of candidate's choice from "Riflessi del Mare" by Ettore Pozzoli.

SECOND STAGE

Up to 30 candidates will be admitted to the second stage. Candidates must follow the guidelines of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs on www.viaggiasesicuri.it regarding the Covid-19 health emergency.

Eligible candidates will be examined in the order decided by means of a draw. The order of the candidates' Competition performances will be drawn the day before auditions.

Only the Chairman of the Jury can change the sequence of a day's performances due to force majeure. For the final with Orchestra laVerdi of Milan, the order can be modified for organisational or programme-related reasons.

Contestants who are not available to perform when required will be disqualified.

Any changes to the repertoire must be submitted by 3rd September 2021.

Each performance must be executed from memory.

The order of pieces' performance is at the candidate's discretion.

It is not allowed to repeat a piece already performed in another round.

Through the proposed pieces, candidates must show their ability to deal with different authors, periods and styles.

Refrains may be included or omitted at the candidate's discretion, bearing in mind the time limits specified. Should the contestant overrun the time limit, the Jury may stop his/her performance.

All auditions of the competition will be open to the public and web-streamed.
